Rita Othman is an ethnobotanist from an aboriginal native tribe in Sarawak.

She is a plant expert and knows all about traditional plants in Malaysia.

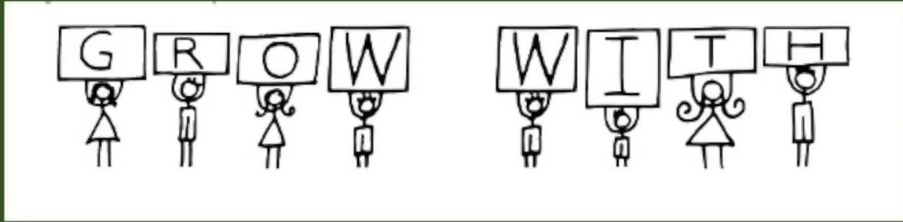

Rita will be doing a planting workshop with you.

Rita's daughter Almas is also here to help.

A MESSAGE FROM JACQ

Jacq lives in the UK and it is the middle of the night there now!
She has left a special message just for you!

JACQ'S BOOK

ROALD and the MINDFUL CHEESE PLANT

A Story about Transforming Anger to Calm and Love

JACQUELINE KOAY

Illustrated by Ammu Abhirami

A parent/teacher and child read-together book,

We are going to be reading the book together later on...

And finding out more about Roald.

He has a plant that he cares for.

Let's find out more about plants from Rita....

PLANTING WORKSHOP WITH RITA AND ALMA

We have a variety of different cuttings and saplings for you to plant.

Yam

Kesum (Vietnamese mint)

Sweet potato

Sweet pea

Sirih

Green mustard

The cool thing about these plants is that all are edible and can be used in cooking.
